Your normal home is where you usually live - that means where you spend 185 days or more in a period of 12 months because of your work and personal connections . But if you have no work connections or your work and personal connections are in different countries, then you usually live where your personal connections are. (However if you are a UK citizen and you are working outside the EC, your normal home can be where you are working so long as you have lived there for 185 days or more in a period of 12 months). As an example, if you are a UK citizen returning with your family after working in the USA for 5 years, your normal home is the USA.

The EC is the European Community: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, the Irish Republic, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, the UK. Your belongings are the goods kept by you or your immediate family for household or personal use.

A diplomat includes anyone who works in UK or foreign Embassies, Consuls or High Commissions, or in association with these. Also Foreign and Commonwealth Office staff, or staff working in their support.

A temporary visitor is a person who usually lives outside the EC (or a UK citizen who is working outside the EC for 185 days or more in a period of 12 months) who has no intention of moving his normal home to the EC.

A student is a person accepted to attend a school or college or university in the EC for full-time study. Your normal home must be outside the EC and you must not intend to make the EC your normal home.
